Go to www.tax.vermont.gov for more information.

Homestead Declaration

A 2014 Homestead Declaration must be filed by every Vermont resident homeowner on their primary residence as of April 1.

Who is Eligible to File?

Property Tax Adjustment Claim

Vermont homeowners may be eligible for a credit against their 2014/2015 Vermont property tax. The 2014 property tax adjustment is based on 2013 household income and 2013/2014 property taxes. A homeowner may be eligible for an adjustment if they:

- Filed a Homestead Declaration on their property as their principal residence on April 1, 2014; and,
- Were domiciled in Vermont all of calendar year 2013; and,
- Were not claimed as a dependent by another taxpayer for tax year 2013.

Adjustments are not available for taxpayers with a household income greater than $105,000.

Renter Rebate Claim

Vermont renters may be eligible for a rebate based on the portion of rent paid that exceeds an established percentage of household income. A renter may be eligible for a rebate if they:

- Were domiciled in Vermont for the entire calendar year 2013; and,
- Were not claimed in 2013 as a dependent of another taxpayer; and,
- Have household income in 2013 that does not exceed $47,000; and,
- Are the only person in the household making a renter rebate claim; and,
- Rented in Vermont for all 12 months in 2013. See page 44 for the one exception.

Not included in your 2013 Vermont Income Tax Booklet.

The goal of the Vermont Department of Taxes is to provide Vermonters with a personal income tax booklet that is easy to read, understand, and navigate. To streamline the booklet, the following forms are not included:

- IN-117 - VT Credit for Income Tax Paid to Other State or Canadian Province
- IN-119 - VT Economic Incentive Income Tax Credits
- IN-153 - VT Capital Gains Exclusion

All forms are available on the Department of Taxes website at www.tax.vermont.gov

General Instructions

Income Tax Due Date

The due date for the 2013 tax year is April 15, 2014. To receive a six-month extension of time to file your income tax return, file Form IN-151 on or before April 15, 2014. An extension only allows additional time to file your income tax return. It does not extend the due date for your tax payment. Interest and penalty accrue on any tax due from April 16 to the receipt of the payment of tax.

Timely Filing

Tax returns mailed through the U.S. Post Office are considered timely if received at the Department within 3 business days of the due date. Electronic filings transmitted on the due date are timely if you receive confirmation of your filing. If you bring the return to the Department, it must be delivered on or before the due date to be timely.

Filing After the April 15, 2014 Due Date

A Vermont income tax return may be filed up to 60 days after April 15, 2014, without being charged a late filing penalty, even if you have not filed an extension of time to file with the Vermont Department of Taxes. Filing the return on the 61st day after April 15, 2014, or later will result in the $50 late file penalty.

If you have filed an extension, you will not be charged the $50 late file penalty unless you fail to file by the October 15 extension date. An extended income tax return filed one or more days after October 15, 2014 will be charged the $50 late file penalty.

NOTE: The late filing penalty applies even if you have a refund or no tax is due. If any tax is due, late payment penalty and interest charges also apply.

Interest and Late Payment Penalty

Tax paid after April 15, 2014, accrues interest and late payment penalty.

Use Whole Dollars

Round entries to the nearest whole dollar. The cents are preprinted with zeros.

Incomplete Forms

If information necessary to support a credit or benefit is missing, your filing may be processed but the credit denied. This may result in a bill or reduced refund. You will have an opportunity to supply the information. In some instances, your tax forms may be returned to you. The credit or benefit cannot be processed until the Department receives the missing document(s) or information.

Forms That Cannot Be Processed

If your filing is not acceptable for processing, the Department may return your paper forms back to you. The filing date of your return then becomes your resubmission date. The Department may also transfer your filing information onto acceptable forms. You may be assessed a $25 processing fee that partially covers the costs of transferring the information. Examples of unacceptable filings are: forms marked "draft" or "do not file," forms not pre-approved by the Department, photocopies of forms, faxed forms, forms not written in blue or black ink or computer-generated forms submitted with forms printed by the Department.

Requests for Additional Information

You may be asked to supply additional information to clarify items on your Vermont income tax return. Such a request does not necessarily mean that you filed improperly or that you have been selected for an audit. These requests are a routine part of processing. Your return, however, cannot be processed until the information is received.

Offset - Your Income Tax Refund May Be Used to Pay (Offset) an Outstanding Bill

Your income tax refund will be taken to pay a bill you or your spouse/civil union partner owe to the Vermont Department of Taxes and/or other government agencies such as the Internal Revenue Service, Office of Child Support, Department of Corrections, Vermont courts, student loan agencies, Vermont State Colleges, and tax agencies of other states. You will receive notification if your refund is offset.

Injured Spouse Claims

To make an "injured spouse" claim, please send the following information prior to filing your return.

1. The request letter;
2. Copy of Federal return 8379 (if you filed one with the IRS);
3. Copy of Federal Schedules C and SE; and,
4. Form 1099G for unemployment.

Mail to: Vermont Department of Taxes
ATTN: Injured Spouse Unit
PO Box 1645
Montpelier, VT 05601-1645

Financial Difficulties

If you cannot pay your entire Vermont income tax due, file your return on time and pay as much as you can. Then immediately write to the Department to apply for a payment plan. Do not include this request with your return. Send your request to:

Vermont Department of Taxes
ATTN: Compliance
PO Box 429
Montpelier, VT 05601-0429

You may be asked for financial information to determine the appropriate installment payment. Without a payment plan, unpaid income tax results in collection action which may include placement with a commercial collection agency, liens on your property, legal action, and/or loss or suspension of your professional license.

Claiming a Vermont Refund

You must file a Vermont Income Tax Return to receive a refund of Vermont withholding or estimated tax payments. You have up to 3 years from the due date of the return, including extensions to file.

Amending or Correcting Vermont Income Tax Return Information

You are required by Vermont law to file an amended Vermont return within 60 days if you become aware of a change to your Vermont income, file an amended return with the IRS or receive a notice of change from the IRS. A late filing penalty will be assessed if the amended Vermont return is not filed within the 60 days.

Check the Amended box on Form IN-111, Section 1, when filing an amended return for the applicable tax year.

NOTE: When amending for changes to your income, you must also amend your Schedule HI-144, Household Income, submitted with your Property Tax Adjustment Claim or Renter Rebate Claim.

Line 27 Use Tax on Out of State PurchasesWhat is Use Tax?

If you purchased taxable items from an out-of-state business in 2013 that did not collect Vermont Sales Tax, you are liable for use tax on your purchases. This typically occurs when an item is purchased in a state that does not charge sales tax or when items are purchased over the internet. Use Tax is due at the same rate (6%) as the Vermont sales tax. For example, if you purchased a computer for $1,500.00 over the internet from a business located outside of Vermont and sales tax was not collected, your use tax liability is $90.00 ($1,500.00 @ 6% = $90.00).

Who is liable for the Use Tax?

Any resident or nonresident individual who purchased an item delivered to Vermont or used in Vermont that is subject to the Vermont sales tax and for which sales tax was not paid or less than a 6% sales tax was paid is required to pay the Vermont use tax. If you do not include an amount on Line 27, you must check the box to certify that you do not owe any Use Tax.

How to calculate the Use Tax.

Individual taxpayers have three options for calculating the use tax:

Option One – If you have accurate records of all of your purchases, multiply the value of all taxable purchases and rentals by 6% and report the amount on Line 27. (If you paid less than 6% on some of your purchases, include them in your calculation and reduce the tax by the amount you paid.)

Option Two – If you do not have accurate records of your purchases and you did not make any individual purchases greater than $1,000, you may use the Use Tax Reporting Table. If you use the Use Tax Reporting Table, the Department will not assess additional Use Tax unless a purchase with a total invoice amount of $1,000 is unreported.

Option Three – If you do not have accurate records but made at least one purchase greater than $1,000, first calculate the tax on the individual purchases, and then use the Use Tax reporting table for your other purchases and enter the total of the two figures on Line 27.

NOTE: Use Tax on items purchased for a business must be reported on Form SU-451 or on Form SU-452. Businesses cannot use the Use Tax Reporting Table.

USE TAX REPORTING TABLE		NOTE: For each purchase with a total invoice amount of $1,000 or more, the use tax must be calculated exactly. If also using the Use Tax Reporting table, add the table amount to the calculated amount.

Line 4 Home Use If you use more than 25% of your rental unit's floor space for business purposes, the allowable rent amount is adjusted. Deceased Homeowner

Property Tax Adjustment: An estate cannot make a Property Tax Adjustment Claim on behalf of a deceased homeowner. If a homeowner files a Property Tax Adjustment Claim, but dies prior to April 1, the estate must withdraw the claim using Form HS-122W. The estate is responsible to repay any adjustment issued. If the homeowner filed a Property Tax Adjustment Claim between January and March 31 and dies after April 1, the commissioner may pay the adjustment to the town on behalf of another member of the household with ownership interest.

An estate may continue classification of the property as a homestead until the following April provided the property was the deceased homeowner's homestead at the time of death and the property is not rented.

Delinquent Property Tax The 2014 property tax adjustment applies to the current year property tax. The municipality may use any remaining adjustment towards penalty, interest or prior year property taxes.

Nursing Home or Residential Care If the homeowner is age 62 or older and another owner who also lived in the homestead is the homeowner's spouse/civil union partner or sibling and has moved indefinitely from the homestead to a nursing home or residential care facility, the homeowner makes the Property Tax Adjustment Claim with 100% ownership interest provided that the spouse/civil union partner or sibling does not make a Renter Rebate Claim or the spouse/civil union partner or sibling does not make a Property Tax Adjustment Claim for the same homestead.

If the homeowner has moved to a nursing home or residential care facility, a Property Tax Adjustment Claim may be made if there is a reasonable likelihood that the homeowner will be returning to the homestead and provided that the homeowner does not make a Renter Rebate Claim. The Department may ask for a doctor's certificate to help determine whether the nursing home or residential care facility is a temporary location.

Renting at the End of the Year If you owned a Vermont homestead in 2013, sold the homestead before April 1, withdrew or did not file a Property Tax Adjustment Claim and rented between the date of the sale and December 31, you may be eligible for a renter rebate for rent paid in 2013. To qualify for a renter rebate, your household income must be $47,000 or less. NOTE: This is the only situation where a renter rebate can be claimed for less than 12 months.

OWNERSHIP SITUATIONS

Homeowner Age 62 or Older in 2013 If the homeowner shares ownership of the homestead with his or her descendant(s), the homeowner may claim 100% ownership interest on the Property Tax Adjustment Claim, even if the other owners (descendants) do not live in the homestead. A letter of explanation may be requested.

Divorced or Legally Separated Joint Owners If you are (1) divorced or legally separated from your spouse/civil union partner, and (2) the name of the spouse/civil union partner from whom you are divorced or legally separated remains on the deed, and (3) you are awarded possession of the home, you claim as ownership percentage the property taxes for which you are responsible under the final divorce decree or court order. If the divorce decree or court order does not specify responsibility for the property taxes, the person residing in the homestead uses 50% ownership interest. The person not living in the homestead cannot make a Property Tax Adjustment Claim.

The Department may ask for a copy of the portions of the court documents showing the court, date filed, signature page, and the homestead related provisions.

Duplex Housing BOTH OWNERS OCCUPY THE BUILDING AS THEIR PRINCIPAL RESIDENCE, the eligible housesite education property tax is the tax on the portion owned by each homeowner. If the town issues a property tax bill to each homeowner for his or her portion of the homestead, use the housesite value, housesite property tax and 100% ownership interest. If the property tax bill is for the total property, prorate the housesite value, housesite property tax and ownership interest.

BOTH OWNERS DO NOT OCCUPY THE DUPLEX AS THEIR PRINCIPAL RESIDENCE, the owner occupying the duplex as his or her principal residence must prorate for the other owner's interest.

Entity Ownership Property owned by a C or S corporation, partnership, or limited liability company cannot be claimed as an individual's homestead and is not eligible for property tax adjustment. There is an exception for a homestead located on a farm. See Regulation 1.5401.

Life Estate A person who holds a life estate interest in a property that he or she occupies as a principal residence may make a Property Tax Adjustment Claim as if the life estate holder was the owner of the property. The deed does not have to be attached to the Property Tax Adjustment Claim but must be available for review upon Department request.

Trust Ownership A dwelling owned by a trust is not the homestead of the beneficiary unless
The claimant is the sole beneficiary of the trust and:

1. The claimant or the claimant's spouse was the grantor of the trust, and the trust is revocable or became irrevocable solely by reason of the grantor's death;
- or
2. The claimant is the parent, grandparent, child, grandchild or sibling of the grantor, the claimant is mentally disabled or severely physically disabled, and the grantor's modified adjusted gross income is included in the household income calculation.

The term "sole beneficiary" is satisfied if the homeowner and the spouse/civil union partner are the only beneficiaries of the trust. A property owned by an irrevocable trust cannot be a homestead except as stated in (1) above. The trust document does not have to be attached to the Property Tax Adjustment Claim but must be available for review upon Department request.

BUYING and SELLING PROPERTY

Buying after April 1, 2013 For property purchased as your principal residence, you need to file a 2014 Homestead Declaration. If you are eligible to make a 2014 Property Tax Adjustment Claim and the property was declared as a homestead, use the seller's property tax bill. If the property was not a homestead in 2013, ask the town for the housesite value and the property taxes on the housesite as if it was a homestead in 2013.

Property Transactions after April 1, 2014 The property tax adjustment stays with the property. In the case of the sale or transfer of a residence, any property tax adjustment amounts related to that residence shall be allocated to the seller at closing unless the parties agree otherwise.

NEW CONSTRUCTION

New homestead construction that was built after April 1, 2013 and is owned and occupied as a principal residence on April 1, 2014, must file Form HS-122 Homestead Declaration. Eligible homeowners may make a 2014 Property Tax Adjustment Claim. The claim will be based on the value of the parcel as of April 1, 2013.
